FROM THE FRONT.

March 24th, 1899.

REPUBLICAN: Will move tomorrow upon Malabon and Malolos. Two brigades will participate and a large amount of artillery. Undoubtedly the way to Malolos, the insurgent capital, will not be paved with sands of gold, but instead solid lead. The REPUBLICAN correspondent and four men are at present stationed at the signal and telegraph station, a Spanish block-house recently captured from the Filipinos. Today the wires are hot; orders have been received for all men to have three hundred rounds of ammunition, spades pick axes and wire cutters. We will take three days field rations. It is very evident that our generals will take no chances and expect no snags. Dewey will probably visit Aguinaldo with pellets of civilization, and we will hear an artillery engagement that will be something in the annals of history. The past week has been one of quietness; the "hull before the storm." An occasional interchange of courtesies between the outposts has been all. It will take about four days to reach Malolos. Mail has just arrived—two hundred and fifty sacks. The Grant leaves tomorrow for San Francisco. Will send accounts of battle as soon as possible.

W. S. FLICK.

P. S.—Privates just got mail. Fourth infantry joined us at camp; will go with us tomorrow. Makes a fellow feel good.

MARRIED.

At the M. E. parsonage in Broken Bow, Neb., Mr. Earnest R. Booth, of Custer Canyon and Miss Ada Louver, of Broken Bow, were united in marriage on May 7th, Rev. W. H. D. Hornaday officiating. Miss Lizzie Booth, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and Frank Gift as groomsmen. After the ceremony they returned to the residence of the groom, where they were received by friends and neighbors, and a sumptuous dinner was served. Congratulations and many good wishes were extended to the happy couple. Both of the contracting parties are held in the highest respect, and enter on their new sphere in life with the best wishes of a wide circle of friends. They were the recipients of a number of beautiful and useful presents of which the following is a list:

A HISTORY OF THE PHILIPPINES.

The history of the Philippine islands, just published by the Continental Publishing Co., New York, is just out, and is being sold in this county by Perry G. Metcalf, a member of Co. M., of the First Nebraska volunteer regiment, who was recently discharged on account of disability. The work is a thorough review of the East Indies from their discovery by Magellan in 1521 down to the surrender of Manila to the American army, Aug. 13, 1898. The author, Mr. Ramon Lala, is a native Filipino and a graduate of St. John's college, London. He is the only naturalized Filipino living in the United States. The following gives an idea of his ability. Parties wishing a copy of this splendid work may leave their orders at the REPUBLICAN office:

Philadelphia, Feb. 21, 1899. Egbert Gillers, Esq., 25 Park Place, N. Y. Dear Sir: Owing to the widespread interest in our new possessions in the East Indies, the Philippines, the officers of our society have been desirous of securing some one who could address us with authority on the lands and peoples of that distant archipelago. I am pleased to inform you that on the occasion of Mr. Ramon Reyes Lala's recent appearance before the society these expectations were pleasantly realized. Mr. Lala is a thorough master of his subject, and delivered an address at once instructive and vividly interesting. After listening to his spirited lecture one feels that he has gained a trustworthy and comprehensive amount of information about these islands, which it would be almost impossible to obtain from almost any other source.

Very Truly Yours, HENRY G. BRYANT, President of Geographical Society of Philadelphia.

PHIEN COMMENTS. Boston Globe: It is as well printed, thorough and authoritative a work as is to be found in the English tongue.

Lowell Daily Courier: It is certainly the most valuable book yet offered to the public on this subject. The author's personal acquaintance with Aguinaldo and Agoncillo adds additional interest to the book at this time.

St. Paul Globe: History, romance, tragedy and comedy are all to be found in Lala's book.

San Francisco Examiner: Ramon Reyes Lala, now in New York, has written the largest and best book on his native land that has yet been published. New York Herald: His book is by all odds the most important contribution that has yet been made, to our knowledge, of the far off islands that fate has thrown into our hands.

FREE EMPLOYMENT.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 1.—All persons desiring help and all out of employment should write at once to the state labor bureau and let their wants be known. The legislature of 1896 and 1897 passed a law making this a free employment bureau for the entire state.

Those who want help should state in their applications what kind of help is wanted, in what branch of labor, etc. Those who want situations should state sex, age, height, weight, trade or branch of labor, length of service or experience references, etc.

All information received by the bureau will be held strictly confidential and all services rendered will be free. Absolutely no fee will be charged in any case. This is a free employment bureau and is designed to do away with the private employment agency nuisance in the cities, by which so many worthy people are victimized.

All desiring help of any kind—carpenters, brickmakers, mill men, farm hands, city laborers, cooks, servant girls, or help of any kind, should immediately apply to the office and they will be put in communication with those in the line of service desired.

Persons out of employment should also write with out delay. All unfilled applications should be renewed after thirty days.

Communications should be addressed to State Labor Bureau, Lincoln, Neb.

COURT NOTES.

A civil case was heard Saturday before Justice Snyder, in which Thos. Smith sued J. W. Conley for wages. The court in this case held there was no cause for action, and assessed the costs against the plaintiff, Smith.

Tuesday, on complaint of Attorney Kirkpatrick, the sheriff arrested and brought to the city Phillip K. and F. L. Hoffmau, of Callaway, on the charge of selling cattle of other parties, which they had in their keeping during the winter. The cattle belonged to Heenan & McDonald, of Illinois, and Anderson & Henderson, of Kearney. The complaining witnesses claim to be able to prove that the parties arrested sold six head of their cattle. The Hoffmans gave a bond of $500 for their appearance at court and were dismissed.

A complaint was filed against Prof. Seefeld, a "magnetic healer," who has been in the city for some time, on Friday of last week, by the doctors of this vicinity for practicing medicine without authority of law. Before the papers were served the Professor had left the city, and he was followed to Ansley, where C. T. Orr, who was deputized, arrested him and brought him back. He was taken before Judge Armour, where he was required to give bonds for his appearance May 12th, at ten o'clock, to answer to the charges filed against him.

Last Friday evening Attorney Kirkpatrick filed complaint in Justice Snyder's court against W. D. Cole, druggist in the Crystal drug store, charging him with selling intoxicating liquors. The court issued a warrant for Cole's arrest and a search of the premises, and placed the warrant in Marshal Towles's hands to execute. He placed Cole under arrest, and secured sixteen quart bottles marked "pure malt whiskey," a five gallon keg marked port wine, and forty-one quart bottles of beer packed in straw in a barrel. The case was continued from Friday evening until nine o'clock Saturday morning. On a compromise between the parties the case was transferred to the county court, before Judge Armour, the defendant giving a bond of $300 for his appearance, the date of hearing being fixed for May 11th. N. T. Gadd appeared as counsel for the defendant and L. E. Kirkpatrick for the state.

"A word to the wise is sufficient," and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people. For sale by all druggists.
